THANKSGIVING MESSSAGE FROM THE EDITOR

RIGHT ON!

This is Thanksgiving week. It also marks the first anniversary of the launching of The TACOMA FACTS.

Just a year ago this week, we set out to offer Tacoma residents a newspaper that would tell it like it is.

In our own way, we were like this nation's early pilgrims, facing the unknown in new territory, coping with new problems, struggling with new hardships.

And there have been problems this year. We have hit some opposition to our existence, and some resistance to our policies. We have had some pretty serious financial troubles, too, caused mainly by people who ordered advertising and then didn't pay for it. That hurt, and hurt badly. For without paid advertising, the best newspaper in the world can't survive very long.

But, also like the early Pilgrims, we fine on looking back that we have much to be thankful for.

Certainly we are thankful for the confidence of Tacoma's many fine business men and merchants who purchased and paid for their advertising space. Without them, this newspaper would not have been possible.

We are thankful for the growth in circulation, and the interest displayed by many of our readers.

Above all, we are thankful for the opportunity to get to know more about this vigorous, forward-thrusting community, and serve its needs in our own way.

All in all, our first year has been a happy one, and we are looking forward to the next year with enthusiasm. It's good to be one, going on two, especially at this time of year.

So, on behalf of all the staff of the Tacoma FACTS, we offer thanks to our subscribers and the merchants who advertise with us. We value your support, and pledge to continue our best efforts to bring into your home the news, the truth, the FACTS.

Urban League in Job Expansion Program

The Tacoma Urban League has joined forces with two state-run departments in Washington to expand employment opportunities for out-of-work residents in the Tacoma area, according to Thomas Dixon, Executive Director of the Urban League.

Contracts for supportive services to the WIN Program were awarded to 10 Urban League cities across the nation and, as of October 1, the Tacoma Urban League began its official involvement with the hiring of a director and five additional staff members.

Coordinated on the state level by the Departments of Public Assistance and Employment Security, WIN is a training and employment program directed exclusively at welfare recipients covered by Aid to Families with Dependent Children (ADFC). Approximately 325 Tacoma residents are currently WIN enrollees.

Once clients are referred to WIN, the two state departments evaluate each individual's employability. If they are already trained in some skill, participants are placed in a job. If not, they are provided vocational training for a maximum of two years. During their training periods, all Win enrollees remain on public assistance and also receive additional aid such as day care services and tools for training.

According to Dixon, the Tacoma Urban League is now responsible for additional services for persons already enrolled in the program and for those interested in becoming involved.

"Our goal is to double the percentage of minority persons participating in WIN over the next year," he explained. "At this point, only 10% of the enrollees are of minority backgrounds, and the Native American, Chicano and Oriental populations are virtually untouched by this program."

Through personal contact, the Tacoma Urban League's WIN staff, funded totally through a grant from the National Urban League, plans to insure that the lives of participants are "livable" under the WIN Program. Services may include arranging transportation and child care help, providing utuorial assistance and overseeing each individual's relationship with his employer.

"This new partnership represents a significant effort and cooperative venture between a private agency and a government program," added Dixon. "It clearly shows how an organization like the Tacoma Urban League can work within an existing program to aid people in the community who need this kind of support."

Arnold Hirsekorn, director of the Employment Security Department for the Pierce County area, echoed Dixon's comments: "This is an opportunity to put into effect what others have only talked about. That is, for public and private agencies to work together in mutually supporting roles for the benefit of society.

"For too long, too many have been overly concerned with claiming credit for things which are done well and placing blame when things are done poorly. We hope the public will see this association with the Tacoma Urban League for what it is, an active expression of our primary concern with getting the job done."

Persons interested in obtaining further information about the WIN Program may contact the Tacoma Urban League or the Department of Public Assistance.

Here's a number of other great sermons.

Most holiday cards talk about peace, good will, and joy. UNICEF cards do something about it.

You're going to buy holiday greeting cards anyway. So why not buy them from UNICEF?

UNICEF cards provide badly needed food, medicines, and school supplies for the children of more than 100 nations. Many of them were designed by the world's most famous artists as a gift to UNICEF. Which is one reason UNICEF cards cost no more than ordinary greeting cards.

This year, when you send greetings to a friend, send a little hope to a child.

To All Our Readers·

Happy Thanksgiving. Have a good day with Peace, Love and Understanding to all mankind.

Society Editors

... Thanksgiving is the day we feast very lavishly at the traditional sit-down dinner or the more popular, mod-buffet style dinner - sharing in some way with family and/or friends.

If you would like to try something different that will be a memorable sharing experience for you and your guest, try a "good ole soul food southern Thanksgiving breakfast party" this Thanksgiving morning.

For the best effect, no more than ten guests should be invited for this early morning gathering. Lounging or informal hostess wear will be in order.

Start the party by serving "Hot Coffee Royal" in front of the fire place. Be sure to include the pillows and cushions for floor seating. If the fireplace is not available, substitute a variety of colorful lighted candles or some other colorful attraction.

After about an hour of good conversation and the hog drink, your guest should be "thawed out" and fully awake. Breakfast should be served.

Thanksgiving Breakfast Menu

Fried catfish
Oven fried pan sausages or ham
Hominy grits - cooked the day before and fried for this occasion
Scrambled egg w/onions
Cherry tomatoes w/parsely
Hot biscuits and butter
Homemade eggnog or hot pudding with brandy

For an after breakfast drink, serve West Indies Coffee. This is made with 3½ cups milk, ½ cup instant coffee, ½ cup of brown sugar and a dash of salt. Bring milk to a quick boil, pour over instant coffee, brown sugar and salf. Stir until dissolved. Serve in mugs. Make 4 to 6 servings.

Free Medical-Dental Clinic

A new dimension has been added to the Tacoma Rescue Mission free Medical and Dental Clinic. Starting immediately a counselling service is available for individuals and families. This new service is free and appointments can be made by calling FU 3-4242.

The Medical Clinic is open each Wednesday and Thursday, usually in the morning. However the time does vary occasionally, so it is best to call ahead for an appointment.

The Dental Clinic is presently operating one full day per week on Wednesdays.

Those eligible for the clinics are low income families, the unemployed, the elderly, transients, and welfare recipients not receiving medical assistance.

Appointments can be made Monday through Friday between the hours of 9 a.m. and 3 p.m. The phone number is FU 3-4242.

MEN'S DAY CELEBRATION

Mr. Donald Cooper and his committee coordinated and steered their audience through a very interesting, exciting, and inspiring Men's Day Program, Sunday afternoon at the Shiloh Baptist Church.

The theme of their well correlated program was, "What Man is He That Fearest the Lord" Psalm 25:15.

The many roles and responsibilities of man from the creation to the present time was eloquently expounded upon by Mr. Willie Jones, Sr. - Man in Creation, Mr. James Hood - Man as a Leader, Rev. E. S. Brazill, and Man's Role in the Home, Church, and Community from the featured speaker, Chaplin Ray Miller.

Chaplin Miller began his message with a very moving deliverance of the Creation by James Weldon Johnson. He continued with informative narrations to support the belief that man is here to have dominion over the universe and with this power comes responsibilities and a great need for wisdom and leadership.

In keeping with the Men's Day Celebration, Shiloh's Men Chorus surprised the audience with 2 soul stiring spirituals - Oh, Brother Want You Help Me and Steal Away. The numbers were so very well done, that they will be giving a repeat performance during next Sunday morning worship service.

Feminine expertise was adoled to the program with the very beautiful rendition of Deep River by Miss LaTanya Kennedy who will be singing at the Seasonal Tea this Sunday afternoon.

Mr. L. Hart played a very inspiring part as Master of Ceremonies.

Varied exciting and delectable refreshments prepared under the directions of Mrs. James Hood were served in the lower auditorium following the program.

... The NAACP will sponsor their 4th Annual Ten Best Dressed Women's Affair and Dance this Saturday, November 22, at the Lakewood Terrace. Mrs. Goldie Palms, last year's winner, will crown the "Best Dressed Woman for 1971." Mrs. Justine Brown is the general chairman.

... The Unique Social and Community Club will hold their Annual Fashion Show and Dance this Saturday, November 27 ..... Mr. & Mrs. Richard Vandenburg will entertain The Kappa Theta Rho Sorority and guest, Saturday, November 27, at the Tacoma Home Organ Society ..... Don't forget the Seasonal Tea sponsored by the Missionary Department of Shiloh Baptist Church, at 3:00 p.m., Sunday,

Julian Bond to Speak at TCC

Julian Bond, a member of the Georgia House of Representatives, will speak at Tacoma Community College at noon Wednesday, Dec. 1.

His topic will be "Being a Black Politician."

In April 1960 Bond helped to found the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee (SNCC). His work with SNCC took him to civil rights drives and voter registration campaigns in Georgia, Alabama, Mississippi and Arkansas.

He was a founder of the Committee on Appeal for Human Rights (COAHR), the Atlanta University Center student organization that coordinated three years of student antisegregation protests in Atlanta beginning in 1960.

His poems and articles have appeared in Negro Digest, Rights and Reviews, Motive, Freedomways, Ramparts, New Negro Poets, Beyond the Blues and other publications.

Bond, his wife and their four children live in Atlanta.
